the above-named

This case will be transferred from the General Court List to the Hearing Paper for HEARING The 10th day of feb 2026

9:00am

Each party is to appear on the day of the hearing and to be heard on that day if the business of the Court permits or otherwise on some other day to be fixed by the Court. If a party fails to appear on the day of the hearing, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit. If a party fails to appear on the day of the hearing, the Court may make such order as it thinks fit.

If either party desires to respond to the application, it must appear in the Court as soon as possible for that purpose, and if the application is based on any matter of fact, the party is required to give proof of those facts.

The parties are required to bring forward all the evidence by witnesses or by documents which each of them desire to rely on in support of his case and in contradiction of that of his opponent. The Court will be required to hear the evidence and parties failing to bring forward evidence in support of their case or in contradiction of the evidence of the other side, and on such other terms as the Court thinks fit or otherwise.

Parties are required to attend the attendance of witnesses required. It is indispensable that the applicant should be made up as to allow time for reasonable notice to the witnesses required.

If the witness is required to bring books or papers, they must be produced in the Court sufficiently to enable him to understand what is required.

Any party summoning a witness through the Court, thereby becomes liable to pay such witness a reasonable sum of money to be fixed by the Court, for his expenses and loss of time.

The Court may refuse to enforce the attendance of a witness unless such sum has been first deposited in the Court.

If either party desires to attend in person at the hearing any books or documents in the possession or power of the other party, he must give the other party reasonable notice in writing to produce it at the hearing, failing which he will not be allowed to give any evidence in support of his case.
